Grand Knight's Corner

Brothers, I hope this finds you well. This month I have 3 items to talk with you:

1. Reminder: We have a 49er Watch Party on Oct 11. This is  a purely social event which I hope you will come and enjoy with your brother Knights. The link to buy tickets is: <https://HolyFamilyfootball.eventbrite.com>
2. People with Intellectual Disabilities (PWID) Drive: We will be handing out Tootsie Rolls and collecting money for PWID after masses the weekend of Oct 4th, and 25th. I hope you will make time to support before or after masses. It takes only a few minutes of your time to make such a meaningful impact in the life of someone else.
3. Lastly, I'd like to invite you to the Rosary and Adoration on Oct 21st at 7pm in the church. The monthly event is sponsored by our Council. A special emphasis has been given in the Diocesan and Holy Family Pastoral Plans for increased devotion and participation in the rosary. And Father Andrew has asked the Council to reach out to all of its members to increase our participation.

My personal story with the rosary: My mother dutifully taught me my rosary when I was a child, but honestly, I didn't use it for most of my life except at funerals. It just wasn't my thing. A couple of years ago my son Liam was failing in health and the more tests the doctors ran, the more grim the numbers became. I remember one marker had a normal range of 1-100 and Liam was at 1200!

My kid was suffering and there was little I could do about it. I can't describe how worried I was and the stress I felt. I felt useless! It was my job to protect him and I was beginning to lose hope. The worst part was not knowing what was making him suffer. In my anguish, someone (sadly, I can't remember who) asked if I prayed the rosary. Until then, I hadn't. I thought, "why not give it a try?" Let me turn this over to God.

I quickly realized that I had forgotten much of what my mother had taught me decades earlier: not the Our Father and Hail Mary prayer but the structure of the rosary itself. So, I turned to watching YouTube for a rosary guide (there are tons online) and I got reacquainted with the mysteries etc. I must admit I was comforted by the highlighted bead progression on the screen which kept me in sync until the cadence was second nature to me. I could feel the Blessed Mother in my corner, asking for Jesus to intervene on my behalf. Shortly after my daily rosary sessions began, the doctors arrived at a diagnosis. I felt comforted to be able to finally give his condition a name: Ulcerative Colitis.

The doctors put him on two types of medication and immediately restricted his diet. Liam had a hard time giving up foods he enjoyed but the medicine started to bring some of his more worrisome numbers down though the medication started to stress his liver. So, there's a balancing act and changes in medication that became routine. I kept praying the rosary. Frankly, it's the only thing that helped me keep my sanity. I prayed it at home and I prayed it during my commute to and from work (Ascension has an app which will play the rosary on your mobile phone – Google or Apple). The rosary gave me great comfort.

Fast forward a few years later and I'm happy to say that Liam is doing well. He's still on one of his pills but he's doing so well he's now off the other pill that had the liver side effects. I keep praying the rosary and Liam is in my prayers. He's now away at college (more prayers from me). If you don't regularly pray the rosary, I do encourage you to give it a try. You may stumble a bit at first but I hope you'll feel the closeness and comfort of the Blessed Mother comforting you. Better yet, please join us at our monthly Rosary and Adoration in the Church every 3rd Wednesday of the month.

Vivat Jesus,

David Smearden, Grand Knight

Chaplain's Message

God's Masterpiece

Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen was beatified on September 24, 2026, at the Dome at America's Center in St. Louis, Missouri—a historic milestone celebrating his extraordinary life and ministry.

In today's media landscape, top solo commentators command massive audiences. Joe Rogan averages around 11 million listeners per episode, Tucker Carlson draws roughly 3.5 million nightly viewers, and Jordan Peterson's lectures accumulate between 5 and 20 million views over time. Yet in the 1950s, Bishop Fulton J. Sheen's television program, Life Is Worth Living, drew an astonishing 30 million viewers each week.

To put that achievement into perspective:

- Live viewership: Sheen reached 30 million people during a single live broadcast, rather than accumulating views across months or years online.
- Market share: With a total U.S. population of roughly 160 million at the time, nearly one in five Americans tuned in to watch him every week.
- Prime-time competition: Aired nationwide on DuMont and ABC networks, Sheen's show went head-to-head in prime time against entertainment powerhouses like Milton Berle.

- Ecumenical appeal: Despite Sheen being a Catholic bishop, an estimated 70% of his audience was not Catholic.

How could one man, speaking purely about faith, philosophy, and God, captivate the nation on such an unprecedented scale? Sheen himself insisted that the credit belonged entirely to God. When asked how he arrived at his insights, he explained that all preparation took place on his knees during his daily Holy Hour before the Blessed Sacrament.

His beatification serves as a powerful testament to God's enduring grace and providence. Following the example of Archbishop Sheen, we are invited to surrender our lives into God's hands—entrusting every struggle, doubt, decision, and endeavor to the Lord. May we never tire of sharing the Gospel, nor shrink from self-sacrifice when the Lord calls us to serve. Even in our darkest trials, let us never lose hope, but continually live for God and for others—remembering that life is beautiful, and that life is truly worth living.

Faternally yours,

Fr. Dat Lương
Chaplain

OCTOBER IS OUR US NAVY

The Continental Congress created the Continental Navy on 13 October 1775 by purchasing 2 vessels. Benedict Arnold ordered construction of 12 vessels to slow the British fleet invading from Canada. They destroyed his fleet, but he slowed them down. By 1776 more ships were under construction, but outmatched by the Royal Navy, with nearly all captured or sunk by 1781. The War ended in 1783, and by 1785 the Navy was briefly disbanded.

The creation of the “New Navy” 85 years later saw construction of modern ships requested. In 1885, they authorized the first battleship and Pres., Roosevelt added surface ships, submarines, and technological innovations. By 1907, he had added 16 battleships and sent the fleet around the world to display U.S. power. The first aircraft carrier came in 1922.

In the '50s, the Navy began a move to nuclear power, missiles and jets. As of 2023 the Navy operated 480 ships (with 300 actually deployable) and 4,012 aircraft with 332,500 active duty personnel, 274,800 civilian employees, and 101,000 reserve personnel.

Brother Knights who served in the US Navy: Michael Di Santo, Bob Oliver, Bob Scheerger, David Smearden, Jeff Stone, David Troutman, and our deceased vets: Federico Cortez, John Marks, Frank O'Donnell, Charles Pori, Carrol (Bill) Spencer.

MAJOR OPPORTUNITY

Election Day Is Coming Get Out and Vote!

Tuesday, November 3rd, is Election Day.

Knights are urged to exercise their civil right and vote in national, state and local elections.

Confirm your registration and, if not registered, register, AND encourage eligible family members and friends to do the same.

Regrettably, not all citizens exercise this civil liberty.

Voter turnout rates have ranged from 50 to 60 percent. As patriotic Catholics, we are grateful to live in a country where we have the right to vote – and the freedom to encourage all those voters around us to vote as well.

Brother Knights can assist eligible voters who may lack access to the critical information necessary to ensure all may freely cast their ballot by referring them to nonpartisan resources, whether voting by mail, absentee ballot or at a polling place. Working together, brother Knights can make history by improving voter participation in their communities because Every. Vote. Matters.
